Cookie Policy

When you visit the BRG Gibson Auctions website at www.brggibsonauctions.com ("the Website"), you should be aware that we use "cookie" technology to try to make that experience simple, personalised and meaningful.

We are providing this information as part of our initiative to comply with recent legislation, and to make sure we're honest and clear about your privacy when using the Website. In relation to this matter please be assured that we're committed to working on a number of other privacy and cookie-related improvements to make to the Website.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files which are issued to your computer or any similar device you use to access the internet (e.g. smart phone, tablet or other mobile device) which store and sometimes track information about your use of the Website. A number of cookies BRG Gibson Auctions ("BRG") uses last only for the duration of your web session and expire when you close your browser. Other cookies are used to remember you when you return to the Website and will last for longer. Please note that cookies do not harm your computer or software installed on your computer.

BRG Cookie Usage

BRG does not store personally identifiable information in the cookies we create, but we do use encrypted information gathered from them to help improve your experience of the Website. We use cookies to:

- Recognise when a visitor to the Website has visited before; this means we can identify the number of unique visitors we receive to the Website and allows us to make sure we have enough capacity for the number of users that we get;
- Help us to identify and resolve errors, or to determine relevant related products to show you when you're browsing.
- Collect statistical information about how our visitors use the Website so that we can improve the Website and learn which parts are most popular to visitors.

Flash Cookies (or Local Shared Objects):

On the Website we may display video content using Adobe Flash Player. Adobe uses Flash cookies (also known as Local Shared Objects) to help improve your experience as a user. Flash cookies are stored on your device in much the same way as usual cookies, but they're managed differently by your browser.

If you wish to disable or delete a Flash cookie, see Adobe Flashplayer Security Settings (opens in a new window). Please bear in mind though, that if you disable Flash cookies for the Website you'll be unable to access certain types of content on the Website, such as videos.

BRG 'Share' Tools

If you take the opportunity to 'share' content with friends through social networks – such as Facebook and Twitter - you may be sent cookies from these websites. We do not control the setting of these cookies, so we suggest you check the third-party websites for more information about their cookies and how to manage them.

Third Party Cookies

Certain cookies are either set by third parties on the Website or these are set by us using the third parties cookie code. More information about cookies placed by third parties and how to restrict or block their cookies can be accessed by following the link to their website. In addition to cookies, tracking gifs may be set by us or third parties in respect of your use of the Website. Tracking gifs are small image files within the content of the Website or the body of our newsletters so we or third parties can understand which parts of the Website are visited or whether particular content is of interest.
